Re: United States v. Thomas James Puccini
25 MJ 1713

Dear Judge McCarthy:

I am writing to let the Court know that, after the conclusion of the proceeding in the above-referenced case, the Government received additional information about the defendant's father's conduct. After the presentment, Task Force Officer Woodburn told me that he saw the defendant's father in the courthouse around 3 p.m. and the father apologized to him. The Government does not believe that this information is material to the Court's ruling on detention, but nonetheless wanted to bring it to the Court's attention because the Government addressed the father's conduct in arguing against release to the defendant's home.

Very truly yours,

JAY CLAYTON
United States Attorney
